

After reading the selection, choose one of the following assignments:

Option One: Using one of the following quotes, create a collage that compare and/or contrasts the quote with the reading. Include an explanation of how your art connects the two (about one paragraph – double-spaced).

Option Two: Using one of the following quotes, create a poem (it can be a found poem, one in your own words, or a combination of both) that compares and/or contrasts the quote with the reading. Include an explanation of how your poem connects the two (about one paragraph – double-spaced).

Option Three: Using one of the following quotes, write a personal reflection about how the quote relates to the story, South African apartheid in general, and your own life. Be specific and explain your examples. Your reflection should be about 250 words (one page, double-spaced.)

After reading the selection, choose one of the following assignments:

Option One: Using one of the following quotes, create a collage that compare and/or contrasts the quote with the reading. Include an explanation of how your art connects the two (about one paragraph – double-spaced).

Option Two: Using one of the following quotes, create a poem (it can be a found poem, one in your own words, or a combination of both) that compares and/or contrasts the quote with the reading. Include an explanation of how your poem connects the two (about one paragraph – double-spaced).

Option Three: Using one of the following quotes, write a personal reflection about how the quote relates to the story, South African apartheid in general, and your own life. Be specific and explain your examples. Your reflection should be about 250 words (one page, double-spaced.)

Quotes:

1. "Fear is a question. What are you afraid of and why? Our fears are a treasure house of self-knowledge if we explore them." – Marilyn French
2. "It is what we fear that happens to us." – Oscar Wilde
3. "One sees great things from the valley, only small things from the peak." – G.K. Chesterson
4. "Life shrinks and expands in proportion to one's courage." – Anais Nin
5. "All of the significant battles are waged within the self." – Sheldon Kopp

Grading:

Clearly connects the quote and the story _____/5

Neatness and effort (for reflection effort = spelling, grammar, word choice and voice) ____/5

Depth of thinking; includes specific examples, and/or images; complicated symbols; applies to current events; applies to other events in history; includes a paradox, etc. ____/5

TOTAL _____/15

Quotes:

1. "Fear is a question. What are you afraid of and why? Our fears are a treasure house of self-knowledge if we explore them." – Marilyn French
2. "It is what we fear that happens to us." – Oscar Wilde
3. "One sees great things from the valley, only small things from the peak." – G.K. Chesterson
4. "Life shrinks and expands in proportion to one's courage." – Anais Nin
5. "All of the significant battles are waged within the self." – Sheldon Kopp

Grading:

Clearly connects the quote and the story _____/5

Neatness and effort (for reflection effort = spelling, grammar, word choice and voice) ____/5

Depth of thinking; includes specific examples, and/or images; complicated symbols; applies to current events; applies to other events in history; includes a paradox, etc. ____/5

TOTAL _____/15