

Kenya Vocabulary

Name: _____

Day 1

New Words:

sojourn homage resounding prostrate

trudge

Candy Mountain

One of my favorite things to do, at least once a year in my dreams, is sojourn at the base of Candy Mountain with my friend "Charlie the Unicorn". Although the path to get there is quite far and I often find myself trudging across the magical bridge, it is well worth the trip. As soon as I can view its sweet deliciousness I pay homage by sacrificing a candy cane. I then prostrate myself before the giant fountain of chocolate. If I am not too full after drinking from in the stream I climb to the gumdrop top and let out a resounding yelp of joy! Candy Mountain! Candy Mountain!

Sample sentences: Try your hand now at using your new words by writing them in their correct form (change endings if necessary) in these sentences:

1. Charlie the unicorn loved to _____ in the meadow filled with butterflies and daisies.
2. The students paid _____ to their teacher by always bringing him flowers.
3. After the marathon, we still had to _____ across the parking lot to drive home.
4. The man was lying _____ before the king as he asked him a favor.
5. The _____ echo moved through the entire canyon and called all the people out of their houses.

Definitions: Match the new words with their dictionary meanings.

- |                     |  |
|---------------------|--|
| 6. sojourn _____    | a. respect paid or rendered  |
| 7. homage _____     | b. a temporary stay  |
| 8. resounding _____ | c. to walk laboriously or wearily  |
| 9. prostrate _____  | d. (1) impressively complete (2.) utterly loud                                       |
| 10. trudge _____    | e. lying face down on the ground, as in token of humility, submission, or adoration. |

Swahili Lesson

Jambo = Hello

Kwa Heri = ~~Godbye~~ Goodbye

Kenya Vocabulary

Name: _____

Day 2

New Words:

Bewilder

smoulder
smolder

incessant

staunch injunction

Kenya Digit!!

Lions!! Need I say more!! Before you hear me incessantly rave about the amazing wildlife Kenya has within its borders, let me tell you more about Kenya's culture. Home to countless cultures and ethnic groups, Kenya will bewilder and amaze you with the vastness of its diversity. In addition, think of the landscape! Can you imagine sitting beneath a starry sky as dinner <sup>smoulders</sup> smolders in the fire and the sound of elephants resound in the background? As a staunch friend of wildlife, culture, and beauty, I must insist that you visit Kenya. Think of it as an injunction!! Book your plane ticket today.

Sample sentences: Try your hand now at using your new words by writing them in their correct form (change endings if necessary) in these sentences:

1. The confusing math exam left me in a _____ state.
2. The judge declared an _____ on the striking airline pilots and forced them to return to work.
3. The student was a _____ critic of the new no-sugar policy. He protested against it every lunch hour with picket signs.
4. Crickets kept me awake all of last night with their _____ chirping.
5. The jealous opponent's anger _____ all year long as he plotted his revenge.

Definitions: Match the new words with their dictionary meanings.

- |                                     |                                    |
|-------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| 6. bewilder ____                    | a. to exist in a suppressed state  |
| 7. smolder smoulder ____ | b. to confuse or puzzle            |
| 8. incessant ____                   | c. strong, steadfast, loyal        |
| 9. staunch ____                     | d. a command or order              |
| 10. injunction ____                 | e. continuing without interruption |

Swahili Lesson

Hujambo?

How do you do?

Njembe

Fine